
Brakes

BAERBaer's corporate resume includes highlights such as designing and building the highly successful Pro-Search? Mustangs for the Bob Bondurant School of High Performance Driving. Preparing the chassis, brakes, and safety equipment for Car Craft Magazine's "Project 200 Mustang".Baer has developed and managed major projects for a variety of automotive publishers. In addition, Baer has performed testing and/or built custom performance brake systems or components for Ford Motor Company, Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Corvette Group, GMC, Lincoln Mercury, Mitsubishi, Pontiac and Volvo of North America.Baer has also provided special development services to such notable and varied aftermarket leaders as Vortech Engineering, HKS USA, Roush Performance, Lingenfelter Performance Engineering, Foos Design, Hotchkis, Steilow Engineering, Kenne-Bell, Posie's, ACC, Toyo Tire, RennTech, O'Gara-Hess & Eisenhart, Mallett Motorsports and others.View products

TAR-OXThe steady research and development of new products has led TAR-OX to be one of the most recognised names in brakes. Few companies can compare with TAR-OX in terms of sheer innovation, quality and reliability.View Products